Top Pcmac Reviews Good game if you are patient From Razgriz-1 (Pcmac user) I have had the game since 2016 and I always thought it was the best game glu has ever come out with. Many people give the game negative reviews because of how it offers deals on special weapons that are just outside your in-game price range, so you'll be tempted to spend real money to be able to afford the deals. These special weapons in currency are not necessary to beat the game anyway for most of the game. You may need it for the last position, I might honestly not be sure, but there are literally more than fifty positions in the game, so I wouldn't throw the idea of getting the game out the window yet, I recommend you at least try the game first. But if you remember this: you can't just blow through any of the locations in a day, it will be a slow and varied process. so if the statistic of your life's patience is I don't recommend you get the game. Bravo at first but then lame to die

TheCrazyAssDog123 (Pcmac user) At first the game is fun, interesting and challenging, but after that it begins to become very boring and repetitive. Weapons cost too much and last for a few days at most. I think the game needs new design the guns and trophy hunts. After beating a couple of regions, you get different guns, however the guns look the same, only with different colors. Trophy hunts have the same animal and description after beating a couple of regions. Everything also becomes repetitive. After going to a new region, it's always the same trophy hunting, contract hunting and rifle series, and even rare hunts are gone after beating like region 14 or something, I don't know exactly. At least give us an event in every new region that is not the same as any of the previous regions, be creative. Overall the game is just fun for a while, and it gets very boring. I understand that it's very difficult to create or add to a game, but I think developers could add a little more effort and time, because it looks like they're lazy and just copy and paste everything in. I don't want to play this game anymore until everything I mentioned is fixed, because right now, I think the game is really boring and not much fun. Solve the Elite 1m series on standard 3 (yes, don't laugh at me) and there's an elite hunt. I decided to give it a try once I saw that he gave me the Westin Warfighter Elite. I go up to level 10 quite easily and I have the .45 Frosty or what it's called. I thought the prices were too high for the update, but whatever, I'm still having fun, so I keep going. I get to level 20, it was quite challenging but I had a lot of sports drinks and animal calls so I took the rifle. At this point I was disappointed in myself because I had already updated the Maginot Marauder to the maximum in all and level 2, even the shotgun that seemed really nice to me but was also expensive, so I went ahead. From level 20-30 it was hell for me, at this point I didn't have sports drinks and an animal call, I was pretty much waiting for the daily bonus to give me something, so I have the slightest chance against some of the levels. Do they really expect me to take 3 running lung shots, I repeat, RUNNING deer in 20 seconds? The answer is yes. In my opinion all you have to do is bring the highest reward, so it motivates me to continue and if I stop I will leave a lot of delicacies that I could have obtained. I don't think 6 platinum coins are enough to hunt 2 albino caribou that react immediately to your blows, as they try to get lung shots on them so you don't fail the mission, believe me, you will be, over and over again. Good game, too loading from StormingReviews (Pcmac user) This game is quite fun, from the beginning until you can progress further. I'm annoyed at how long it takes to load up when it starts. It says it makes updates and downloads when there are no to be received. I downloaded the game and opened it from the App Store and still checked for updates and downloaded updates, what did you update in 1.6 seconds glu? It often crashes even immediately after a hunt, taking my energy, but not giving my reward, oh and I have to face the loading screens again. Load. the quality of the game speaks for itself when you see four stars despite my complaints. Complaints.
